

RESUME

Personal information

Bart Lennaert Vink, born January 22nd 1967, Delft, Netherlands
Living in Amsterdam

Working for the Dutch national administration in The Hague (Ministry of Infrastructure and Environment)

Experience

September 2008 – present: deputy director Division National Spatial Planning October 2009 - present: Review Spatial Policy: program manager
January 2006 - present: teacher spatial planning at Utrecht polytechnic on transport

March 2010 – July 2010: candidate Member of Parliament Dutch social-liberal party (D66)
April 2006 – December 2010: program manager Randstad 2040 Structural Vision
January 2005 – March 2007: teacher at DTV Consultants March 2001 – January 2006:
main editor, deputy project director National Spatial Strategy of The Netherlands

June 1997 – March 2001:

senior policy advisor at the Dutch Ministry of Transportation and Water Management June 1993 – June 1997: sr.management advisor hrm at KPN

Education

2009 – 2009: NSOB The Hague, interdepartmental management class
1986 – 1992: University Utrecht, Geosciences

Roles:

dep.director
program manager / projectmanager
sr.advisor / consultant teacher

Additional information

2006 – present: Member of Advisory Council Utrecht Academic School

2005 – 2007: Marc de Smidt academic prize for best thesis of the year: member of the jury
1988 – 1991: dep.chairperson European Geography Association